

Hammond Studio of Dance

Jane Downey

Jane Downey

Jane Downey started dancing at the age of 3 in St. Louis, MO. She began training at the Gerri Stretz & Yvonne Meyer Professional Dance Center where she performed at national competitions and Disney World. In addition, she was a Cerre Player at Christian Brothers College, choreographing and performing musical theatre.

After earning a Bachelor of Arts in Communication, and a double minor in Business and Biology at the University of Missouri-Columbia, Jane moved to San Diego to continue studying, teaching, and performing dance. She became a scholarship student at the Academy of Performing Arts, carrying on her practice in tap, jazz, ballet, contemporary, lyrical, and hip-hop. Jane is now thrilled and honored to be a member of Unity San Diego.