

Hammond Studio of Dance

Kevin Frey

Kevin Frey grew up in the beautiful city of Oceanside. Since birth he has always had a passion and a deep connection with music. With dreams of becoming a performer, he got himself into dance classes at the age of 10. Training at such studios as Dance Unlimited, Studio 429, Culture Shock Dance Center, and Rising Star Dance Academy, Kevin studied in Hip Hop, Tap, Jazz, and Ballet. Kevin has had the opportunity to grace the stage with some of SoCal's biggest dance groups including: Flipside, Breakthrough, FutureShock SD, Formality and Choreo Cookies. A member of Unity Dance Ensemble since 2007, Kevin has worked his way up from Unity 2 directed by Tarua Hall to Unity LA, and now also serves as Tessandra Chavez's assistant. Kevin is currently pursuing his career as a professional dancer and has had the opportunity to work with NappyTabs, Rosero McCoy, and Brian Friedman. Kevin hopes to not all only achieve his own goals, but to inspire others to do what they love and to never compromise their dreams.
